<tr>
<th>Peer Review Student Checklist</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>#1. What question, problem or issue does this essay address?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| #2. What is the complete thesis statement?
  NOTE: if you have trouble identifying either the question/problem/issue or the thesis, be sure to concentrate on how to help the writer clarify the problem |
| #3. Note with a wavy line in the margin the places where you got confused as a reader. (Or describe which places were confusing to you.) |
| #4. What are the strengths and weaknesses of the paper?
#5. How will the teacher respond to this paper?
#6. Where do you agree and disagree with the writer? |
| #7. Reread the draft. Where is the quality of support?
Does the writer offer enough details (data, statistics, quotes, references) to support his/her argument?
Does the writer need to do more research? |
| #8. List at least two things you feel are particularly strong about this draft. |
| #9. Make three or four statements recommending specific changes which should be made in the next draft. |
